Randfontein Publicity Association's Corporate Social Investment (CSI)

The Randfontein Publicity Association (RPA), a non-profit organisation and organiser of the annual Randfontein Show, is deeply committed to social upliftment and prides itself on being able to give something back to the community it serves.

Since the inception of the Randfontein Show 33 years ago, organisers have made a contribution to local (and some national) charities and service organisations on an annual basis. It also gives to needy individuals and families, waste-pickers and homeless people.

The following organisations have received support from the RPA in recent years:

- ◆ Rainbow Day Care Centre for physically & mentally disabled children.
